

Cheminformatics Crossword

Across

- 1 A language for specifying substructures in molecules.
- 2 A unique identifier for chemical substances.
- 6 A rule for predicting the drug-likeness of a molecule.

Down

- 1 A notation used to represent chemical structures.
- 3 The organization that standardizes chemical nomenclature.
- 4 A molecule that binds to a receptor.
- 5 The property of a molecule that is not superimposable on its mirror image.